

Demeter Annual Meeting and Luncheon

Wednesday, May 1, 2024

Blackhawk Country Club, 3606 Blackhawk Dr., Madison

11:30 am Registration and Fellowship

12:00 Lunch

Leslie Holland is assistant professor in the Dept. of Plant Pathology and a fruit crop pathology specialist in the Division of Extension. Her research focuses on the diagnosis, biology and management of pathogens affecting fruit production in Wisconsin, specifically cranberry, apple, grape and other specialty fruit crops. Her research includes fungicide resistance, disease forecasting, and cultural and chemical management.

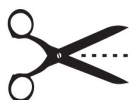

MENU CHOICES

Fresh-baked broccoli and ham quiche with fresh fruit garnish

Grilled chicken salad, craisins, bleu cheese, walnuts, raspberry vinaigrette (gluten free)

Fettuccine Alfredo with grilled vegetables primavera (vegetarian)

Entrees include roll, beverage (coffee, tea, soft drinks)

Name _____ Salad _____ Quiche _____ Fettucine _____

Spouse/Guest _____ Salad _____ Quiche _____ Fettucine _____

Number of lunches _____ @ $26.00 = $ _____

$20.00 Annual Dues/ Person $ _____

Donation to Student Support* $ _____

In Memory of _____

In Honor of _____

*Student Support includes scholarships, internships, and grants

Donation to Sewing Project..... $ _____

Check No. _____ TOTAL ENCLOSED $ _____

Please make check payable to DOD, Inc. Mail to: Douglas Maxwell, 11691 Mid Town Rd, Verona, WI 53593-9009

RESERVATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY WEDNESDAY April 24, 2024.

To pay online with a credit card: go to DemeterWi.org

